

I received a notice that LPFM may interfere with our Christian radio station, K-LOVE. This is the only station my kids can listen to without getting a heavy dose of inappropriate lyrics containing sex and violence. K-LOVE provides our 6 daughters and the rest of the community with an alternative to our over-sexed culture. Please do not take it off the air, and replace it with a station that may require a 7 second delay!